please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 we've all heard stories of individuals shifting their perspective to see and feel the love that's all around them this is how we learn to love we see and feel the happiness that's already there waiting to be accessed and fully lived 2 impatience is a major bully to happiness it pushes happiness out of the neighborhood almost as soon as it shows up but learning to accept and allow to go with the flow and relax a bit is critical to living a happy life 3 gratefulness is the ability to notice the good in the midst of the bad the color against the backdrop of gray and the lovely even though it's surrounded by the ugly 4 forgiving others is a way to release old pain and open yourself up to new opportunities it's time we freed ourselves by letting old pain dissipate into the darkness so that new opportunities can take us to greater heights of joy

this book is going to share with you how to see the world in happy light it is about how to always seeing the bright side of things for example we need to lose something in order to learn but as long as we are safe and happy we can always get it back and more why do we need to see the world as happy there are people who incurred huge financial debts and when they learned to get out of the debts they became millionaires and more the solution they found actually helped them to increase their capacity to have more even though the initial hardships caused them tremendous pain and suffering being happy doesn't mean suppressing your other emotions it is letting out that thus by not holding onto the past you are free to pursue your dreams why do we always believe that others are better in this and that rather accepting that we are all unique and different we may sing dance write better than others thus there is division of labour where each individual has the choice to choose what you enjoy doing and exchange these goods and services with others goods are known as goods simply it feels good to us do you want to buy bads hahaha the other way to see things in a happy way is simply accepting that we allow things to unfold in its own timing like a flower will bloom in spring and wither in autumn for me based in singapore where it is summer all year round since i am living on the tropical climate of the equator that receives lots and lots of sunshine i would travel out of singapore to experience the four seasons that was the reason that captivated me to stay in uk where i was based in manchester cambridge and glasgow after staying in uk i realised i missed sunshine a lot so it is good to be back as such one can always change as we discover what we enjoy and it can remain happy as long as we see the bright side of thing i love the cold and cloudy gloomy like weather because i can sleep lots stay indoor to read and of course drink lots of hot tea that i constantly put on the hot water boiler in my room and yes room temperature 20 degrees celsius coke taste warm and yummy in cold snowy winter 3 degrees celsius in a nutshell we see the world as happy to keep us positive and enthusiastic and appreciate our life for what it is only then can we bring joy and love to those around
