Fictions of Adolescent Carnality considers one of the most controversial topics related to adolescents: their experience of desire. In fiction for adolescents, carnal desire is variously presented as a source of angst, an overwhelming experience over which one has no control, bestial, disgusting, and just occasionally a source of pleasure. The on-set of desire within the anglophone tradition has been closely associated with the loss of innocence and the end of childhood. Drawing on a corpus of 200 narratives of adolescent desire, Kokkola examines the connections between sociological accounts of teenagers' sexual behaviour, adult fears for and about their offspring, and fictional representations of adolescents exploring their sexuality. Taking up topics such as adolescent pregnancy and parenthood, queer sexualities, animal-human connections, and sexual abuse, Kokkola provides wide-ranging insights into how anglophone literature responds to adolescents' carnal desires and contributes to ongoing debates on the construction of adolescence and the ideology of innocence.
