in her new book Diet Failure: The Naked Truth nutritional medical researcher Phoenix Gilman reveals why obesity is so alarmingly prevalent as well as depression add even type 2 diabetes and heart disease more importantly she discloses a safe highly effective solution to help overcome these health conditions without the use of deadly drugs in her progressive book Phoenix exposes the crucial serotonin insulin connection to long term weight loss clinical studies substantiate that serotonin a major neurotransmitter plays a critical role in our ability to lose weight and keep it off however serotonin also plays a critical role directly or indirectly in alleviating depression insomnia add type 2 diabetes even high blood pressure heart disease and suicidal behavior but the key to all of this is understanding how to safely maintain this neurotransmitter Phoenix says never before have i come across such compelling information that could so dramatically help millions of people this research is absolutely vital to overcoming obesity and many other serious health conditions the tsunami of information unleashed by digitization is threatening to overwhelm us drowning us in a sea of frenzied communication and disrupting many spheres of social life including politics election campaigns are now being waged as information wars with bots and troll armies and democracy is degenerating into infocracy in this new book Byung Chul Han argues that infocracy is the new form of rule characteristic of contemporary information capitalism whereas the disciplinary regime of industrial capitalism worked with compulsion and repression this new information regime exploits freedom instead of repressing it surveillance and punishment give way to motivation and optimization we imagine that we are free but in reality our entire lives are recorded so that our behaviour might be psychopolitically controlled under the neoliberal information regime mechanisms of power function not because people are aware of the fact of constant surveillance but because they perceive themselves to be free this trenchant critique of politics in the information age will be of great interest to students and scholars in the humanities and social sciences and to anyone concerned about the fate of politics in our time how does contemporary literature contend with the power and responsibility of authorship particularly when considering marginalized groups how have the works of multiethnic authors challenged the notion that writing and authorship are neutral or universal in novel subjects Leah Milne offers a new way to look at multicultural literature by focusing on scenes of writing in contemporary works by authors with marginalized identities these scenes she argues establish authorship as a form of radical self care a term we owe to audre lorde who defines self care as self preservation and an act of political warfare in engaging in this battle the works discussed in this study confront limitations on ethnicity and nationality wrought by the institutionalization of multiculturalism they also focus on identities whose mere presence on the cultural landscape is often perceived as vindictive or willful analyzing recent texts by carmen maria machado louise erdrich ruth ozeki toni morrison and more milne connects works across cultures and nationalities in search of reasons for this recent trend of depicting writers as characters in multicultural texts her exploration uncovers fiction that embrace unacceptable or marginalized modes of storytelling such as plagiarism historical revisions jokes and lies as well as inauthentic invisible and unexceptional subjects these works ultimately reveal a shared goal of expanding the borders of belonging in ethnic and cultural groups and thus add to the ever evolving conversations surrounding both multicultural literature and self care robert almeder provides a comprehensive discussion and definitive refutation of our common conception of truth as a necessary condition for knowledge of the world and to defend in detail an epistemic conception of truth without falling into the usual epistemological relativism or classical idealism in which all properties of the world turn out to be linguistic in nature and origin there is no other book available that clearly and thoroughly defends the case for an epistemic conception of truth and also claims success in avoiding idealism or epistemological relativism in the heart of our hearts we know that without truth nothing is worth living or dying for this is why the pursuit of truth has been still is and will ever be a widely shared project of humankind but why then do we lie almost spontaneously why does the epidemic of cheating cover all segments of society why are we so apathetic in the face of hypocrisy why do we have this need to lie why do we refuse to allow the truth to free us what does make the fact of being genuine so terrifying and spine chilling is the claim that truth is another name for opinions that suit societal demands of a time and space true is truth changeable or eternal to these questions and to many more dr maalouf masterfully proposes sharp and bold answers that our world needs especially when facing the palpable and unwelcome decline in character values and virtues the very ground of civilization the truth is that without truth a civilization cannot survive this little book takes on a gigantic topic and makes it accessible and understandable to everyone with its groundbreaking and simple words this work is of tremendous intellectual courage in raising big issues without compromises it is a great contribution for the world of truth thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary french philosophy in so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory these writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as simone de beauvoir luce irigaray and sarah kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative they also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as michel foucault gilles deleuze maurice merleau ponty and jean paul sartre the essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in beauvoir s work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic the modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology this volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting french philosophy in english german and french ever since the second world war and the holocaust historians psychologists and theologians alike have attempted to explain how a single personality could bring about some of the greatest horrors of the modern era ron rosenbaum s explaining hitler investigates the meanings and motivations people have attached to hitler and his disturbing policies and whether or not he believed his own doctrines and explores the continuing fascination with the nature of evil the book also documents the story of the earliest critic of hitler the munich post in the 1920s and 1930s and its violent demise first published in 1998 and using interviews of leading experts such as hugh trevor roper alan bullock and daniel goldhagen and discussing the work of many more exploring hitler is a balanced overview of a dark subject
