in recent years the impact of human rights and fundamental rights on private law has risen in prominence and led to a whole series of detailed investigations constitutionalization of private law is the flag under which most of the research on the increasing impact of national constitutional rights on national private legal orders is sailing in the absence of a european constitution the constitutionalization of european private law suggests a process constitutionalization instead of constituent power demos and the magic constitutional moment the charter of fundamental rights and the european convention of human rights constitute the two pillars on which the transformation of european private law rests this volume clearly demonstrates the change that has taken place at the national and at the european level private law is no longer immune to the intrusion of fundamental and human rights whilst member states and the eu are driving the process by adopting ever more concrete and more comprehensive lists of human and fundamental rights at the national the european and international level with overlapping contents the true and key players in this development are the national and european courts contributions to this volume give this process a face and a direction which is highlighted in the introduction by hans w micklitz in constitutional principles of local self government in europe giovanni boggero offers a meticulous account of the defining features of european constitutional local government law using both an international and comparative law perspective the book argues that differences between local government systems in europe typical examples of internal affairs of a state can be smoothed away by construing a consistent system of constitutional principles to be coherently applied at domestic level across the whole european legal space this system can be best grasped by looking at the european charter of local self government which embodies a concept of self government rooted in common legal traditions and at its subsequent practice within the council of europe this book analyses the specificity of the law making activity of european constitutional courts the main hypothesis is that currently constitutional courts are positive legislators whose position in the system of state organs needs to be redefined the book covers the analysis of the law making activity of four constitutional courts in western countries germany italy spain and france and six constitutional courts in central east european countries poland hungary the czech republic slovak republic latvia and bulgaria as well as two international courts the european court of human rights ecthr and the court of justice of the european union cjeu the work thus identifies the mutual interactions between national constitutional courts and international tribunals in terms of their law making activity the chosen countries include constitutional courts which have been recently captured by populist governments and subordinated to political powers therefore one of the purposes of the book is to identify the change in the law making activity of those courts and to compare it with the activity of constitutional courts from countries in which democracy is not viewed as being under threat written by national experts each chapter addresses a series of set questions allowing accessible and meaningful comparison the book will be a valuable resource for students academics and policy makers working in the areas of constitutional law and politics
