Economic Motives

The Industrial Revolution fueled an insatiable demand for raw materials and new markets for American goods Colonies offered access to valuable resources like rubber sugar and minerals as well as a captive market for American products

Military and Strategic Concerns

The rise of naval power became crucial in the global arena The US sought to establish overseas bases and naval outposts to protect its growing trade interests and project military power

Nationalist Ideals

Ideas of American exceptionalism and a sense of national destiny fueled expansionist ambitions Many believed that the US had a duty to spread its democratic values and civilization to other parts of
