reading baudelaire with adorno examines charles baudelaire's oeuvre including verse poems prose poems and critical writings in dialogue with the aesthetic theory of theodor adorno for whom the autonomy of the artwork critically resists any attempt to view it merely as a product of its socio-historic context joseph acquisto analyzes baudelairean duality through the lens of dissonance arguing that the figure of the subject as a dissonant chord provides a gateway to baudelaire's reconfiguration of subjectivity and objectivity in both esthetic and epistemological terms he argues that baudelaire's dissonance depends on older models of subjectivity in order to define itself via the negation of romantic conceptions of a unified lyric subject in favor of one constituted simultaneously as subject and object this new understanding of subjectivity reconfigures our relationship to the work of art which will always surpass conceptual attempts to know it fully acquisto offers a fresh take on some familiar themes in baudelaire s work dissonant subjectivity in baudelaire rather than cancelling esthetic transcendence points to a different way forward that depends on a new and dialectical relation of subject and object
