this book analyses the main historical turning points in the spanish economy and the related challenges it faced it focuses on six turning points that changed the direction of the spanish economy and identifies the economic social or political origin of these watersheds it also compares the spanish trajectory with the international one exploring the macroeconomic context in which these turning points happened as well as the external and internal constraints on domestic political choices for a small country like spain the book focuses on how spain faced up to each turning point the reforms that were implemented the differences between the spanish response and that of other countries the results of the policies enacted and what problems were not tackled this is an interesting and unique perspective as most of the turning points in economic history are generally studies from the viewpoint of core countries such as the uk us or germany the ultimate objective is to learn useful lessons from spanish economic history in order to better face future turning points the south china sea disputes flashpoints turning points and trajectories focuses on the currently much debated theme of the south china sea disputes one of the hottest international disputes of the 21st century which can easily turn from a brewing flashpoint into a regional conflict with global repercussions through a compilation of commentaries published by the s rajaratnam school of international studies from 2012 to much of 2016 the book attempts to reflect the evolution of the disputes in recent years through what can be seen as turning points and trajectories in the diplomatic tensions the book is divided into four sections taking off from a key diplomatic or related incident development which can be seen as a turning point for each with the concluding section looking at what lies ahead for southeast asia and the larger asia pacific region amidst the uncertainties triggered by the south china sea imbroglio among the contributors arif havas oegroseno ba hamzah barry deskar bill hayton david rosenberg donald k emmerson ellen frost hasjim djalal ian townsend gault joseph cy liow kwa chong guan li mingjiang li jian wei li dexia marvin ott mushahid ali muthiah alagappa nguyen hung son nguyen thi lan anh phoak kung ralf emmers rene l pattiradjawane raul pete pedrozo richard javad heydarian robert c beckman shashi jayakumar victor savage yang razali kassim zha daojiang this readable survey on the history of missions tells the story of pivotal turning points in the expansion of christianity enabling readers to grasp the big picture of missional trends and critical developments alice ott examines twelve key points in the growth of christianity across the globe from the jerusalem council to lausanne 74 an approach that draws on her many years of classroom teaching each chapter begins with a close up view of a particularly compelling and paradigmatic episode in christian history before panning out for a broader historical outlook the book draws deeply on primary sources and covers some topics not addressed in similar volumes such as the role of british abolitionism on mission to africa and the relationship between imperialism and mission it demonstrates that the expansion of christianity was not just a western driven phenomenon rather the gospel spread worldwide through the efforts of both western and non western missionaries and through the crucial ministry of indigenous lay christians evangelists and preachers this fascinating account of worldwide christianity is suitable not only for the classroom but also for churches workshops and other seminars based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative the turning point in the gospel of mark argues that the twin pericopae of peter s confession 8 27 38 and the transfiguration 9 2 13 together function as the turning point of the gospel and serve in a janus like manner enabling the reader to see the author s main focus the identity of jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples peter s confession of jesus as messiah faces backward toward the prologue 1 1 13 and functions as a mid course conclusion the declaration by god on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end course conclusion 14 61 62 15 39 son of god jesus in response teaches that the son of man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 christologically the images of messiah son of man and son of god converge and present jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of god in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae when one is confronted with this jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of god in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow
