a brief historical account of the background leading to the publication of the first four editions of the world directory of crystallographers was presented by g boom in his preface to the fourth edition published late in 1971 that edition was produced by traditional typesetting methods from compilations of biographical data prepared by national sub editors the major effort required to produce a directory by manual methods provided the impetus to use computer techniques for the fifth edition the account of the production of the first computer assisted directory was described by s c abrahams in the preface of the fifth edition computer composition which required a machine readable data base offered several major advantages the choice of typeface and range of characters was flexible corrections and additions to the data base were rapid and once established it was hoped updating for future editions would be simple and inexpensive the data base was put to other union uses such as preparation of mailing labels and formulation of lists of crystallographers with specified common fields of interest the fifth edition of the world directory of crystallographers was published in june of 1977 the sixth in may of 1981 the subject indexes for the fifth and sixth editions were printed in 1978 and 1981 respectively both having a limited distribution the 9th edition of the world directory of crystallographers and of other scientists employing crystallographic methods which contains 7907 entries embracing 72 countries differs considerably from the 8th edition published in 1990 the content has been updated and the methods used to acquire the information presented and to produce this new edition of the directory have involved the latest advances in technology the directory is now also available as a regularly updated electronic database accessible via e mail telnet gopher world wide and mosaic full details are given in an appendix to the printed edition outraged conscience careful argument poetry and political analysis gathered here is the diversity of voices traditions and approaches that are weaving themselves into an anti nuclear and peace movement in india and pakistan in these essays written before during and after the may 1998 nuclear explosions scholars and activists from both countries attempt to understand and challenge the nuclearisation of south asia the essays are an act of resistance against governments that see nuclear weapons as a currency of power as symbols of prestige as sources of security as moments of glory in an otherwise dismal contemporary history the collection includes mahatma gandhi s response to the atomic bombing of hiroshima and recent writings by renowned scholars eqbal ahmad rajni kothari ashis nandy and amartya sen as well as arundhati roy and veteran anti nuclear activists academics and journalists the volume also contains the texts of many of the historic public statements protesting the may 1998 nuclear tests which helped mobilise public opposition to the bomb in south asia there is a resource guide to books films and websites on nuclear weapons as well as information on many organisations now working on this issue across the rugged terrains of pakistan iran and afghanistan lives a nation without a state the baloch baloch nationalism between history and resistance unravels the complex tapestry of a people bound by shared language culture and a fierce sense of identity yet divided by colonial borders and post colonial power plays this book offers a gripping historical and analytical exploration of baloch nationalism tracing its roots from the early 20th century to the present day from the british empires tribal manipulations to the 1948 annexation of kalat and from grassroots uprisings to political movements like the anjuman and the national party it charts the enduring resistance of a marginalized nation more than a chronicle of conflict this work reveals how urbanization a rising educated class and the revival of cultural memory have breathed new life into a resilient political identity with profound implications for contemporary debates on ethnic conflict and self determination this is a must read for anyone seeking to understand the forces that shape nationalist movements in a fractured world
