Private investigator Regan Reilly and her husband Jack No-Relation Reilly head of the NYPD Major Case Squad are about to celebrate their first wedding anniversary. They are looking forward to a quiet romantic weekend out of town. Wouldn't you know their choice of destination provides them with anything but. Regan and Jack had considered going to Bermuda but instead they decide to spend four days at his parents' beautiful beachfront home on Cape Cod, a wonderful spot where they'd never been alone during the summer. The house overflowed with Jack's family bubbling with activity from morning until night. But to be up there for a weekend in April just the two of them sounded like a perfect escape. Arriving at the Cape late at night Regan and Jack are just in time to experience the beginning of a major storm. The next morning Cape Cod Bay is quite a sight churning with whitecaps. The wind is howling ferociously. Sheets of rain are pelting the house. Regan is looking forward to settling in the den with Jack and watching the storm. However the best laid plans in the bedroom Regan opens the curtains to find Skip the Reillys' young caretaker pressing his nose against the glass supposedly checking for leaks. A moment later Jack arrives home from the market. Two gossipy older women who live up the street in tow. A branch crashed through their living room window and they need a place to stay. When Regan thought things couldn't get any worse Skip comes running into the house distraught that he'd just discovered Adele Hopkins the woman renting the house next door in a heap at the bottom of her staircase. To the beach. Regan and Jack run back down with him but huge waves are crashing on the shore. Hopkins is gone. Presumably swept out to sea. Who was Adele Hopkins? No one knows. The sixty-ish loner who moved in five months ago. Shunned her neighbors. Even her landlords. Friends of the Reillys have no idea how to locate her. Next of kin discovered in her dining room are stacks of apology cards she'd not yet sent and bags of decorative pillows that are embroidered with the saying Grudge Me Grudge Me Not. Regan and Jack begin an investigation to help their friends track down Hopkins's family. They start by interviewing two young women who own the shop where Adele had bought the pillows. Pippa and Ellen opened Pillow Talk after they both lost their jobs when a newspaper article revealing the terrible way the women had been treated by their former employers was posted on the internet. Business took off. They started to become well known and the Pillow Talk website became a place for people who had had similar experiences to vent their feelings. Pippa and Ellen just
