severe abuse often occurs in settings where the grouping whether based around a family or a community organisation or institution outwardly appears to be very respectable the nature of attachment dynamics allied with threat discrediting the manipulation of the victim s dissociative defences long term conditioning and the endless invoking of shame mean that sexual physical and emotional abuse may in some instances be essentially unending even when separation from the long term abuser is attempted it may initially be extremely difficult to achieve and there are some individuals who never achieve this parting even when the abuser is dead the first published in 2002 this book surveys how and to what effect shelley uses erotic narratives to mask political rhetoric within his attempts to describe and bring forth utopia posing erotic relationships as both an exemplar of the inequities of power and a paradigm for alternative social orders that dismantle oppressive structures it argues shelley s work imagines a space where the rigidity of tyranny succumbs to the liberation of ecstatic union from the romantics to the aesthetes it argues that this model contributed to a counter tradition in british literature which situates the erotic as a trope for political discourse this work will be of interest to students of literature the balinese devotion to their temples is both legendary and conspicuous but the ways in which they enshrine their innermost desires have long been hidden this ethnography draws back the veil by focusing on the romantic experiences of women in a rural village punyanwangi in north bali from adolescence to maturity delving into the intensity of passion that exists just below the harmonious veneer of traditional patterns of courtship and marriage motherhood and connubial fidelity this book overturns margaret mead s assertions of passivity in balinese social life punyanwangi s proximity to a thriving tourist center allows megan jennaway to explore as well the striking gender disparities in the ways sexuality and desire are culturally mediated aside from service work women are excluded from entering the tourist domain yet male sexual adventurism is expected and even encouraged the bodies of foreign women are thus invested with potent fantasies of exotic desire while those of local women are muted denied legitimate avenues of expression the author invokes post freudian and feminist concepts of sexuality to explain culturally specific psychiatric disorders to which balinese women are prone interpreting them as expressions of frustrated desire she thus convincingly reveals balinese society as anything but unemotional or stagnant rather it is swept along by currents of emotionally charged desire by allowing key informants to tell their stories in their own voices and by skillfully interweaving fictionalized interludes the author gives us not only a rigorously researched ethnography but an intimate and fully realized portrait of balinese women s innermost desires
