the overarching theme of this book is that the second coming of jesus happened in ad 72 and that therefore jesus is not coming again to rapture the church the book lays out a thorough exploration in support of this theme daniels prophecies are foundational especially his prophecy of the seventy weeks in dan 9 24 27 and his prophecy of four sequential fertile crescent mediterranean empires see dan 7 the fourth empire or the roman empire is the key to understanding my theme with stress on the meaning of the horns on the head of the fourth beast see dan 7 7 8 as proof of my theme i use the biblical code of two or three witnesses see e g deut 19 15 matt 18 16 john 8 17 and i john 5 8 the three witnesses i give are daniel jesus and the collective apostles all of whom taught and agreed that jesus second coming would take place before jesus generation passed away matt 24 34 furthermore i show how the epistles of the n t reflect this theme by citing scores of passages from them for my readers to consider finally in chapter five of the book and in five appendixes i show how the book of revelation aptly interpreted fully agrees with this theme in the book second thoughts about the second coming teacher author and systems engineer joe reeves deals with many aspects of the idea of jesus second coming that are seldom considered by modern christians but he does so from the standpoint of asking several critical questions the basic questions he asks and answers in this book are can a book of scripture at some later date come to mean what it never meant can a scriptural text at a later date come to mean what the author obviously did not intend it to mean to those of his original envisioned recipients to whom he wrote and a meaning that the first recipients simply would not have understood then based on those answers he asks and answers several questions about jesus resurrection his resurrected nature and his ascension then based on the biblical answers to those questions asks and answers the question about whether or not jesus and the biblical writers predicted a second coming using those questions and the question of specifically what would those first century christians have understood about what modern interpreters call jesus second coming as the basis for study joe uses his training and experience in systems thinking bible history cultural anthropology and logic and philosophical realism to formulate a system of thinking that challenges many of the modern assumptions upon which the four most common doctrines about jesus second coming are based for the person who wishes to learn more about how the first christians would have used and understood the writings they received about jesus and his life after his resurrection this book is a must read life in this life is a journey and not a destination though the journey itself leads to an eternal destination heaven or hell in the interim between the journey and the destination everyone is busy trying to navigate the journey while not necessarily giving enough serious thought to the journey's final destination yes people are getting married or not divorcing pursuing educational and career goals saving and spending living life in the blind while paying little or no attention to the fact that time as we know it is running out of time most believers or christians believe christ will return one day and rescue his people out of this life although christians do typically believe and may even pray for the return of christ some lack a clear understanding of what the bible teaches about the second coming of christ on the other hand there is a disproportionate number or group of people that because they have been hearing all of their lives that jesus is coming back are ignoring the clear and concise prophetic writing on the prophetic wall that time is running out of time nonetheless the bible is inundated with prophecies that are unmistakably clear regarding the second coming of christ therefore this book the second coming of christ the rapture and the revelation is a book that unveils and reveals the fact that prophecy is history written in advance the last word in its title revelation points to the appearing of christ at the culmination of the great tribulation for the battle of armageddon the battle of all battles this book is the sounding of the alarm that each of us should be through diligent preparation and godly steadfastness with uncompromising stick to itiveness living to live again each of us during this dispensation of grace will be upon christ's return left behind to undergo the unspeakable suffering of the great tribulation or either resurrected or translated in glorified bodies to meet christ in the air to go with him to heaven this book will help each of us embrace the fact that the rapture of the church is imminent or very close at hand each of us will either be caught up in glory at the rapture or

this book was originally published in 1896 it has eight chapters each one written by a well known minister of the era except the last chapter written by an unknown with the initials j w written for the layman not the scholar each chapter is in one way or another about the return of christ it is a very good book for anyone seeking to learn the basics of the second coming of christ called eschatology even though i have written four books on bible prophecy i plan to read this book and add it to my library michael d fortner publisher authors of the chapters 1 harriet beecher stowe 2 d l moody 3 j c ryle 4 george muller 5 d w white 6 g c needham 7 charles h spurgeon 8 j w the most anticipated event since the birth of the lord jesus christ has been and remains his second coming in power and great glory when that would happen was a question asked by his disciples who became his original apostles it was written and prophesied of by many of the ancient prophets of the old testament who lived and wrote before the birth of jesus christ the fact is many prophets and apostles have been told or have seen in vision much about the second coming of course they have also been told seen and written or the last days the times seasons events and conditions of the world and of the united states of america preceding his second coming this book quotes highlights and describes many prophecies given by both ancient and modern day prophets and apostles difficult and wonderful times are coming this book will both instruct and illuminate concerning the incredible events that are already unfolding as the time for christ s second coming grows nearer jesus christ was very clear one day he will return and none of us knows when however if you listen to the sensationalists who claim to know the specifics it s easy to forget that many of the details of christ s return have been purposefully shrouded by god in mystery lord when looks at the second coming from a scriptural point of view while examining the questions objections and various views of the tribulation and the rapture as the world draws nearer and nearer to the second coming it is more important than ever that all christians understand what the bible says about this crucial doctrine our greatest hope lies not in theories or inferences but in undeniable facts left by our lord in his holy word about the seventh trumpet the great apostasy the restrainer the antichrist the seventy weeks of daniel the 144 000 servants with over twenty years of research and study of the end times author john j cobb brings a special and unique approach to these areas he has taught four verse by verse expositional classes on the book of revelation his passion for scriptural clarity in eschatology has been the driving force behind lord when whether the information gathered is from him or other authors and experts in this area minister cobb has taken great care to bring it all to bear against the backdrop of holy scripture the final arbiter of all christian doctrine the second coming of our lord jesus christ is the one event most often recorded in holy scripture it is recorded in type in figure in symbol in analogue in parable in hyperbole and metaphor in exalted song in noblest poetry and in rarest rhetoric it is set before us in dramatic and dynamic statement in high prophetic forecast in simple narrative close linked logic expanded doctrine divine exhortation and far reaching appeal the first promise of the second coming was made in eden it was made in the promise given to the woman that her seed should bruise the serpent s head on the cross the serpent bruised the heel of the woman s seed but her seed did not bruise the serpent s head never was his head more uplifted and unbruised than now the promise of the bruising is of god and must be fulfilled the record of that fulfillment is to be found in the twentieth chapter of the book of the revelation where our lord descends and in the plenitude of his power by the hand of an angel binds satan for a thousand years beneath his feet and the feet of his saints as the bruising of the serpent s head takes place at the second coming and the promise of the bruising is made in eden then the first promise of the coming is made in eden and as you see rising above the figure of the fallen first man the figure of the second man you hear for the first time the story of the second coming of the second man and thus the story and the doctrine of the second coming begin with the very beginning of the book
