explanations of nearly 1 000 ancient idioms metaphors and figures of speech in the old and new testaments from a renowned bible translator george m lamsa who was raised speaking aramaic in a community that followed customs largely unchanged since the times of christ offers accurate translations of important idioms metaphors and figures of speech found in the scripture and provides clear explanations of their meaning in biblical context just as shakespeare milton and browning wrote in the vernacular for english speaking people mooses the prophets and the apostles wrote for their own people in the plain language of their times so that even the unlearned might understand god s word over the centuries inaccurate translations and misunderstandings of customs and concepts have led to difficulties in bringing the biblical message to contemporary english speaking readers for example when a man says to jesus let me bury my father lamsa points out that this expression means let me first take care of my father until he dies traditionally scholars assumed that this man s father was dead and that jesus was not interested in his burial lamsa s scholarship offers a more accurate understanding of the intent and spirit of this passage idioms in the bible explained and a key to the original gospels goes far in correcting such errors that have crept into biblical scholarship obscure and difficult passages from both old and new testaments are listed and compared with the king james version though it will be helpful when used with any english version these make clear the original meaning of such ancient idioms and assure that our grasp of the biblical message is more sound and rewarding to further uncover the original teachings of scripture lamsa discusses at greater length such topics as the language of jesus aramaic phraseology the sayings of jesus early translations and more tolerance and co existence are both great in fact they are necessary if we are to live together in peace without hating each other or physically harming each other over differences in race culture sexual orientation political views and religious beliefs we must have tolerance however we must also recognize that every belief can t be equally valid if two beliefs directly contradict each other both of them cannot be true no matter how tolerant we become this means it is false to say that every religion is true or that every religion leads to god when people make such claims they show that they have not taken the time to study the world s religions because a brief reading of the sacred texts of only a handful of religions quickly reveals contradictions on the most fundamental levels religious contradictions reincarnation hinduism and buddhism contradicts the belief that this is your only life before eternity christianity judaism and islam salvation from sin christianity contradicts the belief that there is no sin to be saved from but simply pain that can be escaped through enlightenment buddhism jesus christ is the incarnate son of god christianity contradicts the teaching that he is just a prophet islam or that he was a false prophet judaism in light of these contradictions alone all religions can't be true they could all be false but they can't all be true are any of them true this is the most important question anyone can ask recognize religious contradictions embrace them test them seek the truth contradictmovement.org
