margins in popular devotion newly commissioned essays describe some of the central ideas of christian marian thought while also challenging popularly held notions this invaluable reference for students and scholars illustrates the current state of play in marian studies as it is done across the world

one apocalyptic reading of paul s letter to the galatians has been attempted before and is now widely accepted but that reading is not based on a thorough engagement with jewish apocalyptic traditions of the second temple period in this book james m scott argues that there is an essential continuity between galatians and paul s jewish past and that paul uses the apocalyptic epistle of enoch 1 enoch 92 105 as a literary model for his own letter scott first contextualizes the epistle of enoch using the entire enochic corpus and explores the extensive similarities and some significant differences between the enochic tradition and early stoicism then he turns to deal specifically with paul s letter to the galatians showing that despite their obvious differences the two apocalyptic letters have some remarkable features in common as well this approach to the interpretation of galatians fundamentally stands to change the way biblical scholars understand paul s letter and the gospel that he preached paul is within judaism if the net for what is included in judaism is wide enough to encompass the enochic tradition remarkable studies in the new testament have recovered the fact that the gospel the good news of jesus christ was apocalyptic good news god s redemptive action within history today for more and more people the sheer scope of an evolutionary universe renders life on earth as utterly insignificant religion as nothing more than superstition and now in the anthropocene we on the pale blue dot live in an apocalyptic age in which cataclysmic issue after cataclysmic issue threaten the future of the planet the faith of the early church was in an apocalyptic cosmic christ unleashing within history god s good news of a new creation set within the world as we now know it this gives meaning to the cosmos and life wherever it is found around any star screened from view for over a millennium during mission to non apocalyptic cultures now is the time for a new paradigm for church the apocalyptic church for an apocalyptic age to replace the denominational church what a difference this makes to faith worship and the role of the church in an apocalyptic future the two jewish works that are the subject of this volume 4 ezra and 2 baruch were written around the turn of the first century ce in the aftermath of the roman destruction of the second temple both texts are apocalypses and both occupy an important place in early jewish literature and thought they were composed right after the second temple period as rabbinic judaism and early christianity began to emerge the twenty essays in this volume were first presented and discussed at the sixth enoch seminar at the villa cagnola at gazzada near milan italy on june 26 30 2011 together they reflect the lively debate about 4 ezra and 2 baruch among the most distinguished specialists in the field the contributors are gabriele boccaccini daniel boyarin john j collins devorah dimant lutz doering lorenzo ditommaso steven fraade lester l grabbe matthias henze karina m hoogan liv ingeborg lied hindy najman george w e nickelsburg eugen pentiuc pierluigi piovanelli benjamin reynolds loren stuckenbruck balázs tamási alexander toepel adela yarbro collins
