Capps' ministry focused on helping Christians understand their divine rights to healing through scriptural declarations, emphasizing that believers can actively participate in their healing process through faith-filled confessions. Biblical Foundations of Confession and Healing Central to Capps' teachings are several biblical scriptures that underscore the power of words and faith: - Proverbs 18:21 – "Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruits." - Mark 11:23 – "Truly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him." - Isaiah 53:5 – "By His

The Power of the Spoken Word Capps emphasized that words are spiritual containers that carry power, capable of creating or destroying. Key Point: Believers are called to speak God's promises over their health, resisting negative circumstances or symptoms through faith declarations. 2. this volume could be written differently it could present the protestant theological view on the economy from luther zwingli and calvin until contemporary prominent theologians or it could be a description of the teaching of one of the protestant churches or denomination or it could be an investigation of the traces of protestant theology in the contemporary prevailing economic order all such presentations could be hugely interesting and accurate and they would be reasonable in light of the most critical questions of today s world however the authors would propose a different approach that is not disjunctive contrasting or opposing to the above mentioned and that instead wants to reveal new trends and processes occurring in the protestant world and bringing a new more critical view on capitalism and its offspring such as consumptionism
