the indigenous and creole inhabitants mosquitians of african descent of the mosquito reserve in present day nicaragua underwent a key transformation when two moravian missionaries arrived in 1849 within a few short generations the new faith became so firmly established there that eastern nicaragua to this day remains one of the world s strongest moravian enclaves the awakening coast offers the first comprehensive english language selection of the writings of the multinational missionaries who established the moravian faith among the indigenous and afro descendant populations through the turbulent years of the great awakening of 1881 to 1882 when converts flocked to the church and the mission s membership more than doubled the anthology tracks the intersection of religious political and economic forces that led to this dynamic religious shift and illustrates how the mission s first fifty years turned a relatively obscure branch of protestantism into the most important political and spiritual institution in the region by contextualizing the great awakening protestant evangelism and indigenous identity during this time of dramatic social change do you feel like you are in a cocoon and trapped by the systems at large like you want to get out so badly but you can t you really want to be yourself and be set free so you can live your life as your true conscious self well you are in the right place at the right time welcome to the awakening party you are about to see beyond the veils of deception that the system mentalities of the world have deceived humanity into a subservient and boxed in reality away from their true self there is hope since the power is surely within as you will understand who you are and how you can create your own destiny from your own perception of reality you are great and it is time to be uplifted inspired enlightened and aware as unity among humanity is confirmed since we are one conscious mind although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through east to west migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the west to the east yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer's work can now involve an increasingly global audience one way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs xenotropism and the awakening of literary expatriatism through writing memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home the book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in china's history emily hahn nien cheng and qiu xiaolong the author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health this discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual these processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one's mental state readers interested in creative writing or asian literary studies will be able to understand the creative process behind writing memoirs from a combination of personal research based literary and theoretical perspectives traces the path to enlightenment as it is found in 37 pieces of buddhist psychological analysis collectively known as the bodhi pakkhiyā dhammā author david chaim smith offers a guide to the practice of mystical contemplation from the perspective of a highly unusual form of non dual kabbalah unfettered by both religious mythology and psychological reductionism the path articulates the ultimate quest for meaning which seeks to pass through the clutter of the mind s conceptual associations to nakedly and directly recognize the innate essentiality of all things known as the light of en no sof end or the infinite most mainstream conventional schools of kabbalah hold such a radical aspiration to be inapproachable at best and heretical at worst the work introduces six stages that articulate how the mind breaks through its own restrictive habitual reflexes to awaken to the ground of en sof which is the mind s essential nature each stage is illustrated by the author s own original works of art and line diagrams draws upon obscure sources such as the 13th century kabbalistic text fountain of wisdom various alchemical and gnostic texts and the writings of isaac the blind the author reveals how meaning never remains static its nature is to move transmit and display yet its precious potential becomes buried under layers of mental constructs he explains how the mind s habits and reflexes impose structures of containment that try to make sense out of phenomena but these very structures actually obscure their essence completely smith s experiential path to gnostic awakening reveals how in the wake of the lesser concerns of the conceptual mind primordial purity shines in resonances of vast poetic beauty if a sensibility of wonder awe and delight is cultivated offering a step by step analysis to the ecstatic aspects of contemplative revelation david chaim smith explores how to ride the razor s edge of the paradox to coax the mind from the sleep of habituation towards the culmination of gnosis although the process is described within the traditional symbol system of kabbalah its import is a truly radical exponent of extreme mysticism
