a missa é o ritual católico semelhante ao culto das demais denominações protestantes e evangélicas este termo passou a ser usada na idade media entre o século vi e vii e passou a ter um significado cada vez mais realístico a ponto que a igreja católica criou inúmeros rituais agregados a cerimônia da ceia do senhor e jura de pé junto que o pão e o vinho se transformam em carne e sangue a medida que o protestantismo foi tendo mais liberdade de pensamento e expressão e os estudos da bíblia passaram a ser generalizado e não mais monopolizado pelo clero romano as novas denominações foram se formando e entendendo que a doutrina católica da transubstanciação dos elementos da ceia é um exagero e que devemos entender que jesus ao dizer que este é o meu corpo ao se referir ao pão e dizer que este é o meu sangue ao se referir ao vinho distribuído na primeira santa ceia ele falou isto de forma simbólica os cristãos devem celebrar a ceia do senhor todos os domingos em memória de jesus mas não há um novo sacrifício acontecendo ali no altar da missa a palavra missa significa missão também não tem muito sentido o idela é chamar mesmo de culto a deus sem mais enrolação esta obra é uma exortação para que todos nós que passamos o recibo dizendo que somos cristãos de fato tenhamos uma postura de cristão que crer na bíblia e que de fato a tem como a palavra de deus o clamor deste livro é para que os crentes possam ter o hábito de ler a bíblia desde os meus 15 anos quando me converti a cristo que me escandalizo com a falta de comprometimento das pessoas que se dizem servos de deus e que inventam as maiores desculpas para não ler a bíblia desde o famoso não tenho tempo até a que não esta enxergando bem e que precisa ir ao oculista tem a desculpa que não sabe o que acontece que logo sente sono outros dizem que lê mas não entende outros dizem que por não entender é que não ler a verdade é que alem da preguiça em ler não tem a verdadeira convicção que a bíblia é a palavra de deus falam que crêem mas é da boca para fora this book is an ancient work dating back to approximately 300 ad it was probably written in syria where christianity was growing strongly in the first centuries of the christian era the book is also a pseudepigraphic work because it claims to have been written by the apostles to guide the church in its administration however it is a book of great historical value because it reveals what the church was like in the first centuries we see that some things are very emphatic in those days such as the fact that there were only two positions in the church bishop or presbyter and deacon that a good part of the money collected in the church was used to support widows and that salaries were paid to church leaders there were dissident groups that focused on keeping the law of moises another thing we notice when reading this work was that christians were concerned with living a holy life and there was not much concern with theology even so we see clear theological concepts such as the triunity of god and eternal hell for the damned this book didascalica should not be confused with the didache the latter being the oldest christian literature dating from the year 100 ad and the didascalica from the year 300 the didascalica contains much more content than the didache but both follow the same principle of ideas widows are treated in the didascalica almost as an ecclesiastical office we see in acts 6 that the office of deacon was created to care for widows the social care the god of the bible is yahweh appearing 6 828 times in the old testament manuscripts translated in portuguese bibles as lord a comparative study of god s attributes indicates that he is triune father son and holy spirit are three distinct persons and within a composite unity they form one god numerous pieces of evidence in the universe reveal to us that there is an almighty being who created and sustains the universe this god accompanies all the events of history and even the personal lives of each human being he wants to draw closer to us we only need to reach him this book reveals the characteristics of god and shows that jesus christ was god who took on the form of a man and dwelt among us theology is the study of god it is true that due to his immensity man will never comprehend god s infinity eternity and all powerful nature however the lord god left us the bible as a collection of books that reveals part of god s character enough to make us love and fear him god has not forgotten humanity and he wants to restore us so that we can live eternally with him we simply need to recognize his sovereignty god is the essence of light truth justice perfection and all spiritual virtues our sins and corrupt nature are the greatest obstacles preventing us from communing with him this is one of my books that really brings something new treatises on the personality of jesus christ are not usually found mainly because i will show in the scriptures in the section of biographical books called gospels the most angry side of jesus a spirit in conflict with his generation a person who seems to be at odds with the world at odds with his family at odds with his followers at odds with the leaders of his religion at odds with agents of the state at odds with foreigners the jesus revealed in the bible is not the one commonly preached in the pulpits jesus fulfilled his mission as savior but it was very
