using the 180 year history of Keats's Eve of St. Agnes as a basis for theorizing about the reading process Stillinger's book explores the nature and whereabouts of meaning in complex works a proponent of authorial intent Stillinger argues a theoretical compromise between author and reader applying a theory of interpretive democracy that includes the endlessly multifarious reader's response as well as Keats's guessed-at intent Stillinger also considers the process of constructing meaning and posits an answer to why Keats's work is considered canonical and why it is still being read and admired the purpose of this book is to explore what a liturgical approach to the Bible looks like and what hermeneutical implications this might have how does the liturgy celebrate, understand and communicate Scripture the starting point is Pope Benedict's affirmation that a faith-filled understanding of sacred Scripture must always refer back to the liturgy Verbum Domini 52 the first part of the book based on SC 24 provides significant examples to demonstrate the liturgical order of readings intertextually combines Old Testament and New Testament readings using manifold hermeneutical principles specifically how the Psalms show the wide range of interpretations the liturgy employs prayers are biblically inspired and help to appropriate scripture personally the hymns convey scripture in a poetic way signs and actions such as foot washing or the ephphetha rite enact scripture the study considers the mass the sacraments and the liturgy of the hours in the second part benini systematically focuses on the various dimensions of liturgical hermeneutics of the bible which emerge from the first part the study reflects the approaches the liturgy offers to scripture and its liturgical reception it explores theological aspects such as the unity of the two testaments in christ s paschal mystery or the anamnesis as a central category in both scripture and liturgy the liturgy does not understand scripture primarily as a document of the past but celebrates it as a current and living word of the lord as a medium of encounter with god scripture is sacramental liturgical hermeneutics of sacred scripture seeks to contribute not only to the comparison of the roman ambrosian and byzantine rite regarding the word of god but most of all to the overall liturgical approach to scripture as such it promotes an interdisciplinary dialogue of liturgical and biblical studies the final volume in the handbook for liturgical studies series volume v liturgical time and space contains the concluding material for an integral study of the liturgy it opens with a preliminary notion of time and space before discussing in detail three types of liturgical celebrations on which time and space have a direct and particular bearing the first of these is the liturgy of the hours this topic is developed in the light of the early christian tradition until the fourth century and its subsequent forms in both east and west the second is the liturgical year traditionally called the anni circulas the development of the liturgical year during the first four centuries is reviewed this is followed by a detailed study of the byzantine roman and non roman western tradition it concludes with the theology and spirituality of the liturgical year wherein the mystery of christ as a saving event is made present in time so that the faithful may lay hold of it through the word and the sacraments the theology of liturgical space is drawn from the mutual interaction between the assembled community which gives meaning to the place of assembly and the place itself which upholds and signifies community articles and their contributors in part i liturgy of the hours are liturgy of the hours in the first four centuries by ruben leikam osb liturgy of the hours in the east by robert taft sj liturgy of the hours in the roman rite by ruben leikam osb liturgy of the hours in the non roman west by ruben leikam osb and theology of the liturgy of the hours by robert taft sj articles and their contributors in part ii the liturgical year are the liturgical year in the east by matias auge cmf the liturgical year in the east by elena velkova velkovska the liturgical year in the roman rite by matias auge cmf the liturgical year in the non roman west by gabriel ramis the cult of mary in east and west by ignacio calabuig osm the cult of saints in east and west by philippe rouillard osb and theology of the liturgical year by matias auge cmf articles and their contributors in part iii liturgical space are dedication of the church in east and west by ignacio calabuig osm liturgical architecture in east and west by crispino valenziano and theology of liturgical space by cettina militello anscar j chupungco osb is the director of the paul vi institute of liturgy in the philippines and professor of liturgical inculturation at the pontifical liturgical institute in rome among his publications are liturgies of the future the process and methods of inculturation and liturgical inculturation sacraments religiosity and catechesis published by the liturgical press
