memory war and dictatorship in recent spanish fiction by women analyzes five novels by women writers that present women s experiences during and after the spanish civil war and franco dictatorship highlighting the struggles of female protagonists of different ages to confront an unresolved individual and collective past it discusses the different narrative models and strategies used in these works and the ways in which they engage with their political and historical context particularly in the light of campaigns for the so called recovery of historical memory in spain the memory boom and in the broader context of memory and trauma studies the novels that are examined in this book are dulce chacón s la voz dormida 2002 rosa regàs s luna lunera 1999 josefina aldecoa s la fuerza del destino 1997 carme riera s la mitad del alma 2005 and almudena grandes s el corazón helado 2007 these works all highlight the multiple nature of memories and histories and demonstrate the complex ways in which the past impacts on the present this book also considers the extent to which the memories represented in these five novels are inflected by gender and informed by the gender politics of twentieth century and contemporary spain this book examines the cultural articulation of spanish history and histories remembered meaningful experiences it analyzes how real people and fictional characters experience the rupture of post war repression as their vindicating collective memory counters the authoritarian narrative and laws that demonized and criminalized them the book that breaks the persistent cycle of denial of francoist malfeasance is a resource for scholars and students who research the representation of spain s dictatorship its aftermath and the recovery of postdictatorial memory crime fiction written by women in spain and latin america since the late 1980s has been successful in shifting attention to crimes often overlooked by their male counterparts such as rape and sexual battery domestic violence child pornography pederasty and incest in the twenty first century social economic and political issues including institutional corruption class inequality criminalized oppression of immigrant women crass capitalist market forces and mediatized political and religious bodies have at their core a gendered dimension the conventions of the original noir or novela negra genre have evolved such that some women authors challenge the noir formulas by foregrounding gender concerns while others imagine new models of crime fiction that depart drastically from the old paradigms this volume highlighting such evolution in the crime fiction genre will be of interest to students teachers and scholars of crime fiction in latin america and spain to those interested in crime fiction by women and to readers familiar with the sub genres of crime fiction which include noir the thriller the police procedural and the cozy novel the first comprehensive analysis of the novels of prominent contemporary spanish writer and educator josefina aldecoa josefina aldecoa in her treatment of themes such as a woman s place in society under and after dictatorship mother daughter relationships war and memory confirmed her unique role as a contemporary novelist concerned with women's identity in Spain and as a writer of the mid-century generation. Los niños de la guerra, the first volume of her trilogy Historia de una maestra, was one of the earliest narratives of historical memory to be produced in Spain. In this sense, Aldecoa's work anticipated new developments in gender studies such as the intersection of feminist concerns and cultural memory. This book offers a comprehensive examination of Aldecoa's trajectory as a novelist from La enredadera to Hermanas, centring on her primary preoccupations of gender and memory, arguing that Aldecoa's fiction offers a new, more complex understanding of women's identity than previously understood. The work combines the two dominating theoretical components of feminism and cultural memory with close textual analysis of Aldecoa's narratives. Her novels highlight the importance of the details of women's daily experiences and struggles throughout the twentieth century, a period of significant socio-political upheaval and change in Spain's history.

Nuala Kenny teaches Spanish at the National University of Maynooth, Ireland. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country with award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion. The magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Un amor lo suficientemente fuerte como para estremecer sus huesos, un sacrificio lo suficientemente poderoso como para hacer llorar al cielo. Al finalizar la segunda guerra mundial, un soldado traumatizado por la guerra, Janjovic, se vio forzado a infligir un juego de vida o muerte en una comunidad pacífica de Bosnia. En unas cuantas horas, este joven se enfrentó con más amor y odio que lo que la mayoría de la gente experimenta en toda una vida. Años después, Jan se convirtió en un mundialmente reconocido escritor con amplia influencia en Estados Unidos. Su pasado está enterrado en las profundidades de su memoria, hasta que sale a la superficie. En los momentos más inoportunos, el juego presenciado por Jan lo persigue y sin darse cuenta lo lleva a una hermosa pero quebrantada mujer atrapada en el bajo mundo del crimen. Él ahora debe vencer un mal rara vez visto, pero hay un costo: uno que hasta este soldado traumatizado por la guerra no se puede imaginar.
