a powerful fable that delivers a simple but highly effective blueprint for communication success in business and beyond how we choose to communicate determines the difference between success and failure in all of our endeavors bridge builders is a compelling fable of self discovery about daniel reed s journey from ordinary communicator to inspirational bridge builder it s about the power of crafting messages through the eyes of our audience it s about learning to craft our message differently as others needs become the impetus behind our message no matter who you are or what you do incorporating key bridge builder principles and best practices will revitalize your vision for the way you connect with people bridge builders gives you the strategic tools you need to connect to the hearts and minds of your audiences and achieve the objectives that are important to you most problems encountered in practice involve the optimization of multiple criteria usually some of them are conflicting such that no single solution is simultaneously optimal with respect to all criteria but instead many incomparable compromise solutions exist in recent years evidence has accumulated showing that evolutionary algorithms eas are effective means of finding good approximate solutions to such problems one of the crucial parts of eas consists of repeatedly selecting suitable solutions in this process the two key issues are as follows first a solution that is better than another solution in all objectives should be preferred over the latter second the diversity of solutions should be supported whereby often user preference dictates what constitutes a good diversity the hypervolume offers one possibility to achieve the two aspects for this reason it has been gaining increasing importance in recent years the present thesis investigates three central topics of the hypervolume that are still unsolved 1 although more and more eas use the hypervolume as selection criterion the resulting distribution of points favored by the hypervolume has scarcely been investigated so far many studies only speculate about this question and in parts contradict one another 2 the computational load of the hypervolume calculation sharply increases the more criteria are considered this hindered so far the application of the hypervolume to problems with more than about five criteria 3 often a crucial aspect is to maximize the robustness of solutions which is characterized by how far the properties of a solution can degenerate when implemented in practice so far no attempt has been made to consider robustness of solutions within hypervolume based search
