the raid on st nazaire has gone down in history as one of the most daring commando raids of all time given the code name of operation chariot it took place in the early hours of saturday 28 march 1942 and was a joint undertaking by the royal navy and british commando units the port at st nazaire which sits on the loire estuary and the atlantic ocean has a dry dock that was capable of accommodating some of germany s biggest naval vessels such as the bismarck or the tirpitz by putting the port out of action any repairs or maintenance work that needed to be carried out would instead have to be undertaken back home at the german port of bremerhaven to do this the german vessels would either have to navigate the waters of the english channel or the north sea with both journeys potentially bringing them to the attention of the home fleet of the royal navy a raiding force of 612 officers and men were assembled and dispatched from falmouth to carry out the raid sailing on board the obsolete british destroyer hms campbeltown along with 18

motor launches the idea was to ram the destroyer in to the outer gates of the dry dock at st nazaire and put it out of action for as long as possible the raid was a success but came at a price of those who set out 169 were killed whilst a further 215 were captured only 3 motor launches and 228 men escaped and made the return journey back to the uk many brave men gave it their all during the action at st nazaire to such an extent that 89 of those who took part in the raid were awarded decorations for bravery including 5 who were awarded the victoria cross an illustrated history of the world war ii british amphibious attack on a dry dock in the german occupied french town at the beginning of 1942 the prospect of germany's tirpitz the heaviest battleship ever built by a european navy patrolling the atlantic posed a huge threat to the convoys that were the lifeline for britain bombing raids to destroy the ship failed a more radical plan was conceived to destroy the dry dock facility at st nazaire on the french atlantic coast without the use of the only suitable base for the ship the threat would be neutralized the plan was to ram the entrance gates with a ship packed with explosives on a delayed fuse a motorboat armed with torpedoes would fire at the inner gate causing further damage to submarine pens the troops and crew would then destroy as many dockyard targets as they could and withdraw in fast motor launches that had followed them in all this was to be achieved under cover of an air raid hms campbeltown a u s lend lease destroyer was chosen for the task on the night of march 27 the raid commenced the campbeltown succeeded in lodging its bows in the outer gates the fuses detonated the explosives in its hold the following day the dock gates were destroyed the cost to the allies was high but the tirpitz was never able to leave norwegian waters this volume in the casemate illustrated series gives a clear overview of the planning and execution of the raid and its aftermath accompanied by 125 photographs and images including color profiles and maps this book offers a meticulously detailed account based on british records and previously unpublished german documents of the british navy's daring attack on the german naval base at saint nazaire on the french bay of biscay coast carried out on 27-28 march 1942 the operation aimed to destroy the massive dry dock crucial to german naval capabilities through a careful analysis the author concludes that the british commando raid achieved only a partial success at the time propaganda from both sides shaped the legacy of the saint nazaire raid the british hailed it as a remarkable triumph celebrated in military circles as the greatest raid of all conversely german accounts portrayed it as a failed assault marked by devastating losses for the attackers and an impregnable fortress that held firm of the 621 british personnel involved including sailors and commandos 171 lost their lives 232 were captured and 222 were evacuated by surviving motor launches and two destroyers yet the german defenders also paid a heavy price suffering approximately 140 fatalities including 42 in combat and nearly 90 from the explosion of the destroyer campbeltown and 127 wounded a compelling re examination of a pivotal world war ii operation this work reveals the complex truth behind myths of victory and defeat on the night of 28 march 1942 the royal navy and british commandos assaulted the german held french atlantic port of saint nazaire in one of the most audacious raids of the second world war their plan was simple to drive an old destroyer packed with three tons of explosive at full speed into the outer gate of the normandie dock destroying this would deny the formidable tirpitz battleship currently lurking menacingly in the norwegian fjords a base from which it could inflict devastation upon the convoys supplying britain from the united states operation chariot was dramatically successful but at a great cost fewer than half the men who went on the mission returned in recognition of their extraordinary bravery eighty nine decorations were awarded including five victoria crosses into the jaws of death is a gripping story of high daring that demonstrates how the decisive courage of a small group of men changed the course of the war
