discover the untold stories of formula 1's unsung heroes 75 drivers who never reached the podium yet defined the sport through their sheer grit passion and perseverance from battling at the back of the grid to overcoming tragedy and reinventing themselves beyond f1 this book celebrates over 75 years of fierce competitors who never gave up a powerful compelling tribute to the quiet legends of racing they raced with dreams bigger than results some came close to greatness others never had the chance each fought through setbacks crashes and politics they tested waited and hoped some were robbed by fate others by machinery they kept returning year after year lap after lap behind every statistic was grit behind every race start was a thousand unseen hours some found glory in other series some still chase it they drove with heart even when the podium stayed out of reach they mattered they still do jim emerton is one of the most respected figures in pigeon racing having bred and raced birds for 40 years and had birds return to the loft from as far as 879 miles away now he writes on the subject for magazines and websites sharing his expertise and his musings with all who enjoy this absorbing hobby this comprehensive collection of his writings on pigeons covers everything from feed regimes and choosing stock to his experiences with racing from many exotic locations around the world we are a motley crew of mad monks illuminated by a shared dream it is an extension of the old traditional values of the old sage pipe in mouth corn tin in hand sunning himself in a deckchair in his rose garden that is how the iconic birds in folklore and history were raced in the international political economy of the last two millennia there tends to be one state leading the world as the foremost producer of energy and new technology in racing to the top william r thompson and leila zakhirova argue that the us and china like previous leading countries rely on energy transition or the development of alternative energy in order to make new technology relatively inexpensive to develop and to fuel while the us has historically held the lead its edge in the global energy economy appears to be eroding and as energy leadership diminishes so does the country's position in world politics thompson and zakhirova take a long view in order to show what will be necessary for a new power to emerge as the system leader then map a path forward for energy policy informed by a deep knowledge of world history political economy and environmental technology this book is the first complete overview of energy transitions over the past thousand years the direction of travel in the global energy system seems clear a historic shift away from fossil fuels is under way who better to chart it than daniel yergin a flair for dramatic detail and sprightly insights pilita clark financial times the pulitzer prize winning author and global energy expert reveals how climate change and the shale revolution in oil and gas are shaking the global order challenging nations and industries and accelerating a second music has the universal power to move individuals peoples and societies music is one of the most important signifiers of cultural change it is also most significant for youth movements and youth cultures while islam has a historically and traditionally rich culture of music religious controversy on the topic of music is still ongoing however young muslims in today s globalised world seek pop cultural tools such as music and particularly hip hop music as way of exploring and expressing their manifold identities whilst challenging islamophobia stigma and racism on the one hand and traditional and religious challenges on the other hand in this volume following an international conference with the same title scholars and young academics from a variety of disciplines seek to explore and highlight the phenomena surrounding the two somewhat artificially separated realms of music and religion the contributions not only look into different genres of music from tunisian metal over german female hip hop to egyptian folk but take the reader on a journey from continent to countries to cities and rural areas and thus give space and time to a widely neglected area of research that of muslim popular culture and young muslims world's great inventors is an inspiring and educational book that celebrates the brilliant minds who transformed the world through innovation and creativity from the genius of thomas edison and nikola tesla to the groundbreaking work of marie curie alexander graham bell and leonardo da vinci this book explores the lives struggles and triumphs of inventors who changed the course of history each chapter delves into the personal journey of an inventor highlighting their major inventions the impact of their work on society and the legacy they left behind written in engaging and accessible language the book is perfect for students educators young readers and anyone curious about the stories behind the world's greatest inventions

a powerful unsparing new history of world war ii recasting the conflict as a brutal struggle for survival among declining and ascendant imperial powers in popular memory the second world war was an unalloyed victory for freedom over totalitarianism marking the demise of the age of empires and the triumph of an american led democratic order in scorched earth historian paul thomas chamberlin dispatches the myth of world war ii as a good war instead he depicts the conflict as it truly was a massive battle beset by vicious racial atrocities fought between rival empires across huge stretches of asia and europe the war was sparked by german and japanese invasions that threatened the old powers dominance not by allied opposition to fascism the allies achieved victory not through pluck and democratic idealism but through savage firebombing raids on civilian targets and the slaughter of millions of soviet soldiers the soviet union and the united states emerged as hyper militarized new imperial powers each laying claim to former axis holdings across the globe before turning on one another and triggering a new forever war dramatically rendered and persuasively argued scorched earth shows that world war ii marked the culmination of centuries of colonial violence and ushered in a new era of imperial struggle what will it take to turn south africa around in this insightful and provocative book frans raubenbach proposes a complete overhaul of policy thinking and provides fresh arguments that effectively address south africa's unemployment race problems and lack of education rautenbach examines the fundamental problem of rent seeking to which he proposes two antidotes the free market and decentralisation of government along the way he tackles holy cows such as affirmative action trade unions labour law and welfare payments he also addresses contentious topics such as racism white privilege political correctness state funding of higher education and mounting evidence that trade unions substantially suppress employment growth written by a labour lawyer with a proven track record in a range of policy issues south africa can work speaks effectively to a cross section of readers of all disciplines and brings sorely needed good news
