the christian bible is fundamentally a story writers painters sculptors artists and indeed people of all walks of life live by the telling of their stories stories are the most basic mode of human communication thus it is vital to ask why christians and above all christian theologians so often fail to express their faith in terms of story the vast majority of the hebrew scriptures for example consist of stories jesus proclaimed and taught about the reign of god through stories and parables at the heart of the christian faith are stories not concepts propositions or ideas given the deep rootedness of the christian faith in storytelling this book seeks to address the fact that christian theology has too often taken the form of concepts ideas and systems this book is an attempt to speak of christian faith and theology in stories rather than systems through stories both biblical and non biblical this book shows how we might reimagine the task of christian theology in the life of faith today at its heart is the conviction that in the beginning there were stories and that in the end and indeed beyond the end are stories not texts ideas and concepts these are humourous fictitious stories exploring the origins and explanations of some well known nursery rhymes for example you ll discover why humpty dumpty really sat on the wall how goosey goosey gander got his name and why miss muffet really ran away but they are not what you d expect they are heavily laced with my humour read at your peril contains a little adult humour and language so not quite aimed at children on a serious note i will be donating to comic relief from the proceeds so buy now and above all please recommend to all you friends human beings are interpreters when what and how do we interpret which is more reliable literal information or symbolic expression what consequences in school and in all of life are attached to our interpretative judgments we find answers to these questions in stories beginning with the question what do these stones mean in joshua 4 stones and stories examines the elements purposes and effects of storytelling and story writing written for high school students stones and stories is filled with questions writing suggestions sample essays and drawing exercises to promote meaningful engagement with scripture and with literature in general its questions are suitable for individual reflection and group study and discussion like stephen krashen s important work in the power of reading story proof collects and analyzes the research that validates the importance of story story reading and storytelling to the brain development and education of children and adults accomplished researcher and storyteller kendall haven establishes the need for understanding the research findings in neural psychology and brain development and the value of a common definition of story if one is to fully grasp the importance and necessity of story to the development of the human mind to support his case he reviews a wealth of research from storytellers teachers and others who have experienced the power of story firsthand the author has collected anecdotal experiences from over 100 performing storytellers and from 1 800 story practitioners mostly teachers who have made extensive use of stories he has read more than 150 qualitative and quantitative research studies that discuss the effectiveness of stories and or storytelling for one or more specific applications education organizational management knowledge management medical and narrative therapy etc forty of these studies were literature reviews and comparative studies including analysis of over 1 000 studies and descriptive articles he has also gathered research evidence from his own story performances for total audiences of over 4 million and from conducting story writing workshops with 200 000 students and 40 000 teachers the series serves to propagate investigations into language usage especially with respect to computational support this includes all forms of text handling activity not only interlingual translations but also conversions carried out in response to different communicative tasks among the major topics are problems of text transfer and the interplay between human and machine activities the problem this project attempts to solve is to develop a workable moral education in light of the clash between religious forms of moral education and u s supreme court decisions concerning them the concept of story and storytelling has been suggested as a unifying focus for disparate prescriptions for moral education several recent approaches to moral storytelling have been proposed the approaches of william bennett nel noddings and herbert kohl are among those which have attempted to combine moral education and storytelling within the last decade bennett is identified with other theorists whose primary concern is the moral content of a story noddings is identified as a process theorist whose primary concern is the process of moral storytelling not the content kohl is identified as a reflection theorist whose approach challenges tradition in the hope of creating a more moral society each one of these three approaches attempts to provide a comprehensive program of moral education but they fall short of that goal the purpose of this project then is to construct a storytelling moral education program that improves upon earlier approaches using the three levels of moral thinking posited by r m hare a three level approach to moral storytelling is proposed the intuitive critical and meta ethical levels of moral thinking that hare refers to are used to frame a new three level approach to moral storytelling the three level approach combines content process and reflection into a unified prescription for moral education thus a more comprehensive plan for moral education through storytelling is developed one that respects traditional forms of moral education while remaining within the parameters set by the u s supreme court
