the radical message of jesus is that there is only one alternative to the common method of confronting violence with more violence the only alternative christian nonviolent peacemakers in america explores the spiritually active practice of compassionate nonviolence here is a journey through the lives of seven courageous american peacemakers who have embodied christian nonviolence and dedicated their lives to addressing the suffering caused by racial discrimination slavery poverty militarism nuclear weapons prisons environmental degradation and the psychology of fear and hatred here are highlights from the inspirational ideas and actions of martin luther king jr dorothy day thomas merton rufus jones thomas kelly jim douglass and kathy kelly they remind us that to be christian is to use the power of love to transform spiritual economic and social violence the great turning from violence to nonviolence is the story of christianity in america there has never been a more urgent time for this revolutionary teaching to be heard understood and lived it is no longer a choice my friends between violence and nonviolence it is either nonviolence or nonexistence martin luther king jr human beings are now facing the stark choice between survival and destruction amid myriad forms of violence the nonviolent peacemakers within this book can inspire the peacemaker within each of us to cultivate a direct relationship with god and love through contemplation meditation writing and compassionate action based in the life and teachings of jesus in the new testament god promises eternal life for those who believe and have faith in his son jesus why should we believe it perhaps it is an illusion and a comforting dream set forth and perpetuated by a number of men called apostles more than two thousand years ago what evidence is there to support this most startling and significant promise well to paraphrase a well known saying seek and you will find god's promises are liberally sprinkled throughout the old as well as the new testament he has promised blessings things that are received but not deserved and mercy things that are not received but are deserved many times and in many ways his covenants with the old testament patriarchs are of such scale that they require study and contemplation to fully appreciate their meaning to them he promised land influence wealth and heirs and that they would be the ancestors of the promised messiah some are truly astounding for example abraham s wife sarah would give birth to the long promised genetic heir even though both were more than ninety years old the same is true for the special baptism of the apostles with the promised holy spirit on pentecost other promises in both testaments are what i have termed the read over type that are expressed in such a way in the text that we may pass by them with little note we need to read more carefully this book looks at some certainly not all of god s promises to us they are rich and abundant in the word they touch every aspect of our lives all have been fulfilled except one christ s return it is my goal to increase the readers confidence in that event and in the hope of everlasting life because god is faithful and just and never lies can the categories of classical lutheran christology be unleashed to express the vitality of christological existence an existence situated between promise and experience if as martin luther famously asserted in his heidelberg disputation 1518 true theology and recognition of god are in the crucified christ then such a theological point of departure not only bore radical implications for his christology but indeed also bears profound significance for theological discussions around the word of promise its structure its experience its plurality with regard to the elaboration of the two natures of jesus christ such a point of departure permits a delineation of promise the body of promise who is bound to who suffers the nihil of human existence which means such a point of departure affords us equally the opportunity to consider and probe the implications of the nihil as the medium of both threat and promise is this a promising threat or a threatening promise ultimately promise is delineated from within hermeneutical origins the christological function of scripture the text and developed through to its diverse expression as the body of promise translated into christological existence within this context categories of classical lutheran christology begin to express new vitality along the way the word of promise as developed within the trajectory of luther s theology of the cross and his radical delineation of the two natures of jesus christ receives further sharpening within the context of discussion with such theological voices as john caputo and jacques derrida hans holbein the younger albert schweitzer matthias grünewald carl braaten karl barth michael welker and samuel terrien ultimately we are permitted to confess there is one crucified and he is plural what does the old testament say about jesus most of us hear an occasional messianic prophecy during advent we see old testament verses cited by new testament authors and applied to jesus but we don t really know what passages in the old testament can be considered messianic much less how to interpret some of the confusing ones the moody handbook of messianic prophecy is an authoritative and reliable guide to the old testament passages pointing us to jesus a collection of essays from old testament scholars this work enables believers to understand the messianic nature of the hebrew bible like never before you ll learn about messianic prophecy and its interpretation and make new discoveries about the context and application of both familiar and strange passages enjoy the delight of discovery as you look at familiar passages in a new light dig into the messianic prophecy today while the conflict in the middle east continues to fester many christians advance a theology that perceives these events to be the hand of god has god truly brought the jewish people back to the land in fulfillment of biblical prophecies must we truly bless israel in order to be blessed by god lost in the midst of the turmoil over the holy land reside christian communities has the church in an effort to see prophecy fulfilled failed to care for the least of these brothers of mine this book steps into this controversial topic with several aims first dalrymple answers two key questions are the jews still god s chosen people and does the holy land belong to them dalrymple contends that just as jesus is the fulfillment of god s purpose for the temple so also jesus is the fulfillment of the promises to abraham that he would receive the holy land and an uncountable number of descendants dalrymple also responds to some of the common assertions set forth by christian zionists many might still ask why should i care about what happens in israel and palestine the fact is that we must care and we must alert the church that we must care too much is at stake we have christian brothers and sisters throughout the middle east in general and in the holy land in particular who have been directly impacted by our theological opinions as a result the church cannot be silent it must not be silent good christian doctrine is not simply getting the facts right it is something transformative brought to life in obedience to christ in his letter to titus the apostle paul implores the reader to take truth seriously and to ensure that the good news of gospel is being passed on in its full force solid christian doctrine and a passion for godly christian life are twin themes weave their way throughout this short epistle in living doctrine danny akin unpacks this powerful message and shows how these themes are still vital for christians today accessibly written but informed by deep scholarship this book will benefit readers from all walks of life like the biblical book it covers living doctrine is concise gospel centered and immensely practical
