normally in the literary world when you write and publish your original autobiography i was compost when compost wasn't cool now some ten years ago you put a substantial period on what i and many readers thought was a very interesting and successful life what else could there be what else could transpire in just ten short years that would be worthy to share fortunately for my very valuable readers my wife and i have gone through another life time of experiences packed into those very hectic ten years which i hope you will find interesting but also emotional irredeemable despicable and downright felonious in many aspects it still involves my first loves of farming composting machinery and all the life long learning connected to that i mean for me what else is there in life it still reverts back to my parental upbringing and all of my previous mentioned mentors that was my privilege and pleasure to work with in my life up to this point many aspects and stories about those folks will be highlighted that were missed in my first book it also has a lot to do with my wife debbie and our life together it's absolutely amazing how much a person can endure and the pain and heartbreak both physically and mentally will be described the best i know how this book will also describe again to the best of my ability the unimaginable amount of greed ruthlessness trickery conniving fraud extravagant spending and incredible amount of elder abuse on the part of certain family members on their own parents and siblings it is just amazing what money greed and power can do to a family and that will be detailed finally in this book yes only ten years since the original auto biography was written but what a ride hard for me or anyone else to believe but my wife and i lived through all of it for a very unexpected and tragic ending i am the first one to realize that no one is guaranteed anything in life regardless it should have been a wonderful life we tried to do everything i thought to make it so but unfortunately it turned out to be anything but wonderful for us

once there was a boy he was let us say something like fourteen years old long and loose jointed and towheaded he wasn't good for much that boy his chief delight was to eat and sleep and after that he liked best to make mischief it was a sunday morning and the boy's parents were getting ready to go to church the boy sat on the edge of the table in his shirt sleeves and thought how lucky it was that both father and mother were going away and the coast would be clear for a couple of hours good now i can take down pop's gun and fire off a shot without anybody's meddling interference he said to himself but it was almost as if father should have guessed the boy's thoughts for just as he was on the threshold ready to start he stopped short and turned toward the boy since you won't come to church with mother and me he said the least you can do is to read the service at home will you promise to do so yes said the boy that i can do easy enough and he thought of course that he wouldn't read any more than he felt like reading the boy thought that never had he seen his mother so persistent in a second she was over by the shelf near the fireplace and took down luther's commentary and laid it on the table in front of the window opened at the service for the day she also opened the new testament and placed it beside the commentary finally she drew up the big arm chair which was bought at the parish auction the year before and which as a rule no one but father was permitted to occupy the boy sat thinking that his mother was giving herself altogether too much trouble with this spread for he had no intention of reading more than a page or so but now for the second time it was almost as if his father were able to see right through him he walked up to the boy and said in a severe tone now remember that you are to read carefully for when we come back i shall question you thoroughly and if you have skipped a single page it will not go well with you the service is fourteen and a half pages long said his mother just as if she wanted to heap up the measure of his misfortune you'll have to sit down and begin the reading at once if you expect to get through with it with that they departed and as the boy stood in the doorway watching them he thought that he had been caught in a trap there they go congratulating themselves i suppose in the belief that they've hit upon something so good that i'll be forced to sit and hang over the sermon the whole time that they are away thought he but his father and mother were certainly not congratulating themselves upon anything of the sort but on the contrary they were very much distressed they were poor farmers and their place was not much bigger than a garden plot when they first moved there the place couldn't feed more than one pig and a pair of chickens but they were uncommonly industrious and capable folk and now they had both cows and geese things had turned out very well for them and they would have gone to church that beautiful morning satisfied and happy if they hadn't had their son to think of father complained that he was dull and lazy he had not cared to learn anything at school and he was such an all round good for nothing that he could barely be made to tend geese mother did not deny that this was true but she was most distressed because he was wild and bad cruel to animals and ill willed toward human beings may god soften his hard heart and give him a better disposition said the mother or else he will be a misfortune both to himself and to us
